Events Open to the General Public

Active Minds® Presents Iceland - Wed, January 13, 2018 – 3:00PM - 4:00PM
Tensions between North Korea, the United States, and much of the East Asian region continue to escalate without any clear path for resolution. Join Active Minds for a discussion of recent developments as well as a review of North Korean history. We will cover the dynastic leadership of the Kim family as well as the country's ongoing development of nuclear weapons. North Korea's place in the world relative to global issues such as international trade and human rights issues will also be addressed as well as what the future may hold as this situation continues to unfold. Cost: Free. RSVP appreciated.
