If you've been diagnosed with an eye condition, have a family member who has, or have become a caregiver, joining a support group may be the most important thing you'll ever do. Whether online or in your local community, such groups offer the opportunity to talk to others; share common concerns, frustrations, and stories; and find solutions to your vision-related difficulties. The Colorado School of the Blind graciously offers this low-vision support group at RiverPointe each month. No need to sign-up or pre-register. Meeting is held in the RiverPointe Community room.
