Active Minds® Presents Alexander Hamilton

Wednesday, December 11th - 3:00 - 4:00PM

The Blockbuster musical Hamilton has ignited considerable interest in the man and his story. And it is quite a story. Join Active Minds as we journey back to our nation's early history and visit the life and times of Alexander Hamilton, his friends, his enemies, and the principle he fought) and perhaps died) for. Cost: Free. RSVP appreciated.

The RiverPointe Community Band Presents Music is Discipline- Music is Love-Music is Life

Monday, December 16th - 6:45 pm in the RiverPointe Promenade

You are cordially invited to attend the RiverPointe Community Band Concert! Guest musicians within our community will be joining the band to perform many of your favorite carols. There will also be several vocal and cameo instrumental selections for your enjoyment! Cost: Free. RSVP appreciated.

SOCK IT TO EM Sock Campaign

This campaign is a 501c3 non-profit that takes a grassroots approach to provide socks for those experiencing homelessness.

RiverPointe Resident Council is collecting socks for this effort, between Wednesday, December 11th through Tuesday, December 17th. All donations of NEW SOCKS FOR MEN, WOMAN AND CHILDREN can be dropped off at the RiverPointe front desk or in the box marked sock donation located in the mail room at RiverPointe.

Active Minds® Presents The Impeachment Process

Wednesday, January 8, 2020 - 3:00 - 4:00PM

The process of impeaching a U.S. president is complicated both procedurally and politically. Join Active Minds as we seek to clarify how the process works and what is included in each step. We will separate the impeachment process from potential subsequent actions (trial, removal from office) and review historical impeachments as a way of understanding the current situation. Cost: Free. RSVP appreciated
