Active Minds® Presents Indonesia

Wednesday, May 10, 2023 - 3:00PM – 4:00PM

Consisting of over 17,000 islands between Australia and China, Indonesia is a critical presence in a strategically important area. Islam, democracy and modernity not only coexist, but thrive in this mixture of hundreds of ethnic groups and many different languages. Join Active Minds as we examine what's working (and what's not) in the world's largest Islamic country. RSVP requested: Call 303-797-0600.

Active Minds® Presents Frederick Douglas

Wednesday, June 14, 2023 - 3:00 PM

Born into slavery in Maryland, Frederick Douglass escaped to Massachusetts where he rose to prominence as an eloquent writer, orator and leader of the abolitionist movement. He served as adviser to six U.S. presidents including Abraham Lincoln, who referred to him as "my friend Douglass." He also took up the mantle of Women's Suffrage in support of the work of Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton and others. Join Active Minds as we explore the remarkable life of Frederick Douglass.
